Your broken dreams, your crazy schemes

A peace yet to be found

G^{sus2} D

And do you feel the fire when the flame gets hot

 Will you step aside when it all falls down

 And watch it burn away
 G^{sus2} D
 Have a little faith when the walls cave in

 Pray for strength to fly against the wind

 Will you walk away when the fire gets hot

 Or fight another... Another day, yeah, another day, yeah
